BAKER HOME IS CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

Secretary Out of Country for Six Weeks on Unprecedented Mission.

Expresses Pride in Achievements of United States and Allies.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

An Atlantic Port, April 16.—Newton D. Baker returned to America today after a journey to Europe impelled by his desire to confer with British, French and Italian military and political leaders regarding his own country's co-operation in the war, and by his visit to become intimately acquainted with the United States troops under arms in France.

On this unprecedented mission the Secretary was out of the country about six weeks.

"I return with a sense of pride and confidence at the achievements of the United States and allied troops abroad that would justify many trips across the water," the Secretary said as he stepped aboard a train for Washington.

This was the only statement the Secretary said he cared to make until he reached Washington, where he promised a broad review of his voyage and its results.

Those who returned with the Secretary said they did not doubt but that they reflected Mr. Baker's feeling when they said there was complete optimism and confidence among the peoples of the Entente nations that the war would be won.

LARGE SECTION OF AMERICAN LINE, GERMAN CLAIMS, ON THE HIGH ROAD FROM ST MIHIEL TO ROUVROIS WAS ROLLED UP DESPITE BRAVE RESISTANCE.

AMERICANS SUSTAIN SEVEREST CASUALTIES IN ADDITION TO LOSS OF PRISONERS CLAIMED

TREMENDOUS PRESSURE EXERTED BY GERMANS WITH FRESH PICKED TROOPS COMPELL BRITISH TO MAKE SLIGHT RETIREMENT BUT ALL HIGH GROUND IS STILL HELD BY HAIG'S MEN.

Amsterdam, April 16.—(Associated Press Cable)—North of St. Mihiel on Sunday night, says a Wolf Bureau dispatch from Berlin, dated Monday, April 15, the main part of the American position, situated to the eastward and southwestward of Maizey on the right bank of the Meuse river was taken by storm.

A large section of the main enemy (American) lines of defense on the high road from St. Mihiel to Rouvrois the dispatch adds, was rolled up, despite the brave resistance of the enemy, who suffered the severest casualties in addition to loss of prisoners.

CLAIM REPULSE OF GERMANS

The German attack against the American positions on the right bank of the River Meuse on Sunday was made by a force of about 400 picked German troops who recently had been transferred from the Russian front. Although the Americans were outnumbered more than two to one, the correspondent of the Associated Press with the American Army in France telegraphed under date of Monday, the Germans were completely repulsed and were driven back into their own trenches.

BRITISH HOLD HIGH GROUND

Tremendous pressure exerted by picked fresh troops in the desperate German effort to drive the British from Messines Ridge has compelled a slight retirement of the British lines on the northern side of the British battlefield. The town of Bailleul has been evacuated and the British front withdrawn to a line running from north of the town to the north of Wulverghem which occupies the highest point of the eastern ridge system.

The Germans through their push into the southwest are now apparently in a more advantageous position to attack it, and their expected drive upon it was reported developing this morning. As it forms the pivot of the British line which bends here to the north an extremely determined defense is looked for from Field Marshal Haig's troops. Although the loss of Bailleul and some of the comparatively high ground around it represents a decided setback for the defense, the British line as it has been withdrawn is still on ground much higher than the Germans.

Apparently Haig's forces still have a firm hold on all this valuable hill region. The German effort at present seems centered upon the northern side of the Lys battlefield.

BRITISH MISSION HERE

A Canadian Atlantic Port, April 16.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—Two British missions to the United States arrived here today and will proceed soon to New York.

The purpose of one of the missions headed by General Hutchinson, was not made public. It was declared to be important. General Hutchinson is head of the organization in the British war cabinet.

Heading the other mission is Lieutenant-General Bridges. Colonel Wilson, staff officer with the mission, explained its purpose is to co-ordinate the work of other British official bodies in America, co-operating with Reding, British special ambassador.

ZEPPELIN PLANTS BURNED

Geneva, April 16.—(Associated Press Cable)—Enormous loss was caused by the fire which broke out Saturday in the Zeppelin works at Manzel and destroyed the plant which had been transformed for the manufacture of airplanes of the Gotha type, according to a reliable report.

Vast quantities of raw materials were burned and it is reported that two large Zeppelins and 40 airplanes also were destroyed.

The number of victims was considerable but as the military authorities are preventing anyone from approaching the scene the number of killed and injured cannot be ascertained.

AMERICANS REPAIRING TELEPHONE WIRES IN FRANCE

BAILLEUL TAKEN BY GERMANS

London, April 16.—(Associated Press Cable)—The Germans have captured Bailleul on the northern front, the war office announces. The British have fallen back to new positions north of Bailleul and Wulverghem. Fresh German attacks are developing near Wyschaete. German attacks southwest of Vieux Berquin were repulsed.

HEAVY FIGHTING HOLDS HUNS

With the British Army in France, April 16.—(Associated Press Cable)—Bailleul, 8 1/2 miles east of Hazebrouck in Flanders was captured and occupied by the Germans last evening when the enemy also seized Le Revetsberg Ridge, east of the town.

As a result the British pulled their lines back northward somewhat to positions running east and west a little above these places. Fighting is continuing in this sector with the Germans trying to push westward.

FRENCH MAKE CAPTURES

Paris, April 16.—(Associated Press Cable)—Heavy artillery fighting occurred last night on the main battlefield in the neighborhood of Montdidier the war office announces. The French captured a machine gun and prisoners near the Oise canal.

BRITISH SINK TEN TRAWLERS

London, April 16.—(Associated Press Cable)—Ten German trawlers have been sunk by gunfire in the Cattegat (Sweden and Denmark) the Admiralty announces. Their crews were saved by British ships. There were no British casualties. The operations, the statement says, were undertaken by the commander of the Grand Fleet.

CRIPPLES ARE CALLED UPON

New York, April 16.—Germany is so hard pressed for man power that permanently disabled soldiers are retained in the army and cripples are called to the colors. This statement was made in the Reichstag by Deputy Rysell, an independent socialist, on February 23, according to the Berlin Vorwaerts, a copy of which has been received here.

Other deputies also laid bare sensational conditions prevailing in the German army.

RAINBOW PAPER
TELLS OF SCRAP
BY OHIO TROOPS

Rainbow Reveille Tells of Fighting in Which Old Fourth Repulsed the Huns in Good Order.
Courage of Troops Is Praised.

The following significant story from the issue of the Rainbow Reveille of March 18th, gives a definite idea of the fighting in which "an Ohio regiment"—the Old Fourth of which Company M is a part—bore the brunt of a German attack.

The article, under the caption of
"We Wonder Who in the World These Ohio Troops Could Be!" says:

American troops on Saturday evening, March 9, took part for the first time in operations for the destruction of enemy defense works. A destruction raid was carried out on the Franco-American front in Lorraine, east of Reillon, at sunset. The force which carried out this raid was composed of sixty French sappers, carrying explosives and tools, and FIFTY AMERICAN INFANTRYMEN OF
THE OHIO REGIMENT. After a heavy artillery preparation, this force left the trenches at five-thirty in the evening and crossed nearly 500 metres of No Man's Land under a barrage.

The objectives assigned to the men were quickly captured. The sappers destroyed the wire defenses and blew up the German observation post and numerous dugouts, while the Americans covered them, keeping the enemy away.

Shortly after seven o'clock, the raiders returned to their lines and asked for some water to wash up their hands and for some coffee. They had accomplished their task and were through for the day. In the ranks of the half-hundred BUCKEYES there was not the least sign of a casualty.

Official communique pay tribute to the splendid dash and courage evinced by the Americans. The officer and men had their work prearranged to keep them from rushing too far ahead. American artillery helped to prepare for the raid and the rapidity and accuracy of its fire were perfect.

It is said that when the call for fifty volunteers for the raid was made in THE OHIO REGIMENT, forty times that number surged and jostled one another in an endeavor to have the honor of being the first BUCKEYES to go over the top.

ville and Rheims.

ROOF GIVES WAY
ON BOILER ROOM

A large section of roof on the boiler room of the C. H. Brownell & Sons packing plant collapsed, about four o'clock Monday morning, but no serious damage resulted, no one being in the room at the time, and the falling roof doing comparatively little damage to the boilers.

The section of roof, which was about 20 by 30 feet, carried a small section of the wall with it.

The work of replacing the wall and roof was started Monday and was well under way toward completion Tuesday afternoon.

BILLIE PAUL'S RED CROSS NURSE

Following the tribute paid to the Red Cross in Lt. Billie E. Paul's entailing letter, found in Monday's Herald, comes the interesting announcement that "Billie Paul's Red Cross Nurse" will be put up at auction at the K. of P. Red Cross sale of Wednesday night.

Those who have seen her say she is a dream—a real story-book Red Cross nurse,—with golden curls and big brown eyes and altogether a perfect beauty.

It goes without saying that every little girl in the county will want to own this lovely Red Cross nurse. She has a bisque head and a kid body and there are few of this kind now on the market. She is beautifully dressed in miniature garments that are the exact duplicate of those of the Red Cross nurse, completed with the hood and the Red Cross, and, little girls listen, she wears silk stockings.

The big doll is now on exhibition in the Craig Bros. window, from which it will be taken to the K. of P. hall.

The Red Cross nurse is the donation of Lt. Paul's mother, Mrs. G. M.
Paul, to the auction. Billie wrote to her that if she could help the Red Cross in any way he hoped she would and she hopes that through this doll
the amount of her donation will multiply itself many times. She gives it for the son who has already given himself.

Mrs. Paul had a picture taken of the doll before it was put on exhibition and after the auction will send the picture and a report of what the doll brings to her son in France.

articles contributed to the auction, so that the auctioneers will be kept busy the auction, and the public is cordially invited to attend. Dancing begins at nine o'clock, and the admission to the dance hall will be 25 cents. Every cent of the proceeds of auction and

BERT THOMPSON DIES LAST NIGHT

Funeral announcement later.

WHY HE HATES THE RULING CLASS

Here is why Jacob Hoffer, a Muncie German, hates the ruling class of Germany and why he is now more anxious than almost any non-German could possibly be. According to him the brutality, the barbarism now being shown by the Hun war lords is nothing—it was a quality of the German rulers 75 years before this war broke out.

There were just two hundred of them, defenseless unarmed young college men, that marched, over seventy-five years ago, into Berlin, the German capital to petition the emperor for the right which they had heard was granted in America, that of freedom of speech and press, and they went to their death practically all of them—for the policy of "Blood and Iron" Bismarck allowed of no such thing as free speech. Among the students in that group of two hundred was Jacob Hoffer, the father of Jacob Hoffer, a well known music teacher of this city.

He had been graduated from Heidelberg University, had spent two years in Rome studying the violin and had returned to his home for the graduation exercises at the university.

He marched on that day with the other students, their hearts full of hope that their petition would be granted, but when they were only two squares from the palace, the artillery, acting under orders from Bismarck fired cannon into their midst at short range killing about half of their number.

These, stunned by the unexpected attack, stood dazed when the cavalry rushed them from another direction with sabers drawn and slaughtered nearly all those who remained.

Those only escaped who were on the outside column of the student body, and among these was Hoffer's father. It was growing dusk and he lodged into an alley way, closely pursued by a horseman, who drew his sword and struck him across the back cutting him from shoulder to hip but under cover of the dusk, Hoffer managed to crawl to a cellar and into one of the basement rooms, where he hid in a barrel for two nights, escaping at midnight of the second night and going to his home near Heidelberg. From there he was smuggled into Switzerland for safety for the soldiers were scouring the country for the remainder of the students who took part in the uprising against autocracy.

Bismarck and his successors have known well what such an uprising among intelligent students of the empire would mean and that the masses once aroused, would destroy imperial rule, and war lords forever. So he stamped out, as Germany has always stamped out any signs of democracy as they have prepared and just as she is now crushing the hopes of her people for freedom.

The elder Hoffer remained for some time in Switzerland and then as he had long thought of America as a possible home, and knowing the danger of returning to his native country, he sailed for New York.

Arriving there, he was immediately recognized as a violinist of marked talent and had the distinction of playing obligatos for Jenny Lind during the height of her career as a singer. Later he became bandmaster with the old Spaulding-Rogers circus, which some of the older people can remember, and gradually worked his way west into Indiana. He lived in this state until the time of his death in 1901, residing near Yorktown.

"Many a time have I heard my father recite the story of that bloody massacre of innocent unarmed students, who were merely asking for a bit of the liberty that persons of enlightened nations enjoyed," said Hoffer. "I have heard him tell of the nights and days of horror that he experienced in fleeing from the pursuing wrath of the soldiers. Is it any wonder my hopes and longings are bound up in fight that the civilized countries are making against the imperial war lords of Germany and for the freedom of the world, including that of the German people themselves?"

TWO WEEKS MORE IN WHICH FARMERS MUST MARKET WHEAT

Farmers throughout the United States have just two weeks more in which to market their grain before the government will take matters into its own hands and seize wheat which is being hoarded on the farm.

While there has been a good response in Fayette county to the call of the government, there are still thousands of bushels of wheat which will, in all probability, be marketed within the next two weeks.

Many farmers who have had only a few bushels of wheat have marketed it, stating that they wanted to be in the position of helping the government and allies in every possible manner.

Still other farmers have from one hundred to a thousand bushels of wheat, and these are the ones who are expected to market it without further delay.

The government has made it very plain that all wheat stored on the farm must be disposed of by May 1st.

MORE MEN WANTED

Cleveland, Ohio, April 12—There is urgent need for men beyond the draft age in the Y. M. C. A. camps and contingents and back of the firing lines "over there" Robert E. Lewis, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., told members of the Cleveland Engineering Society.

MRS. W. H. HOWE CLAIMED BY DEATH

Friends of the McArthur family in this community will learn with much regret and sympathy that Mrs. W. H. Howe died in the hospital in Indianapolis, Ind., Saturday night.

Mrs. Pauline Custis, who was summoned last Thursday night was with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dorn, Mr. and Mrs. Coke McArthur and Miss Ada McArthur of Madison Mills, left Monday for the Howe home in Seymour, Ind., to which the body was taken from the hospital.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock.

BUSINESS UNIT MEETS

The Young Business Women's Unit of the Red Cross Society held quite an interesting meeting at their Club Room in the Herald Publishing Company's building, last night. The attendance was very good and a number of new members added their names to the Unit.

Mrs. R. C. Hunt was elected to fill the office of Mediator, vacated by Miss Mary Alice Culhan's absence from the city during the summer and the following instructors were named: Mrs. R. C. Hunt, Mrs. V. Hoppes, Miss Martha Clark, Mrs. Walter Girard, Miss Estie Bowman.

The Young Business women are indebted to Mr. C. H. Moore for the use of a Columbia Grafonola, which furnished excellent music throughout the evening—greatly helping to lighten the work of sewing, clipping and knitting. New interest in the Unit was greatly enhanced.

SOUVENIR FROM "NO MAN'S LAND"

An interesting souvenir has been received in the form of a piece of white silk cloth. It is about fourteen inches square and has been used as a parachute by the Germans.

These parachutes with a light attached are sent up to penetrate the darkness of the night over "No Man's Land."

This silk was picked up in the wire entanglements of "No Man's Land" by Sergeant Paul Clutter member of Co. M, and sent to Washington friends.

DEATH SUMMONS WIFE AND MOTHER

Shocking and saddening a large circle of relatives and friends in this community and also that of Jeffersonville, came the word that Mrs. Clarence Allen (nee Corinne Connor) had died at her home near Jeffersonville Tuesday morning at nine o'clock leaving a baby son but a week old.

Mrs. Allen was a young woman who had been identified with Jeffersonville community life since her early girlhood and her untimely death leaves both her home and the community bereft.

Sympathy goes out in overflowing measure to the family, the young husband and baby son and the sisters and brother, Mrs. Bennet King, of this city; Miss Florence Connor, of Chicago, and Mr. Fred Connor, residing at the Connor homestead near Jeffersonville.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning, at 10:00 o'clock at the home, interment in the Jeffersonville cemetery.

Let's Look About Us

Now as never before Washington is in need of industries—manufacturing concerns employing labor, skilled and unskilled. This city has never been much of a manufacturing center, though just why is not clear. It is a wealthy community, it has as much enterprise, certainly, as any one of the smaller cities in the state, it has splendid railroad facilities, exceptional opportunity for getting raw material in and manufactured goods out to the large markets, it has natural gas, electric power current, water works, good drainage, good schools, an ideal community life, splendid banking facilities and, in short, every essential to recommend it to the manufacturer.

On the other hand there are few, if any, of the drawbacks which so many manufacturing centers have. Washington is a clean and healthy place to live in and should appeal with great force to the laborer and to the skilled mechanic. It is a splendid community in which to raise a family—an ideal place to live.

It is opportune to direct attention to these facts now because the tremendous industrial activity throughout the nation has taken several hundred families away from the community and instead of taking steps to check the exodus Washington folks seem content to see it increasing. As a result, there are many empty houses in the community, men who have money invested in houses are deprived of returns on that investment.

Washington is a good city—there are no better. No body wants it to be a "boom town," it doesn't need to be boomed. It is so good that it is regrettable that others, employers and employees are not enjoying its benefits. It is regrettable that while it is good it is not made better for house owners, for merchants and business men.

Conditions present a plain, blunt business and social problem which is not difficult of solution. If just a little hard business sense is applied by a few of our many able public-spirited men conditions will undergo a decided improvement.

Count Czernin Resigns

Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, has resigned.

Just exactly what that means is not yet clear. Some reports, professing to give the reason for the resignation, announce that in his activities the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs was too sincere in his efforts to promote a peace parley between the dual monarchy and the United States to please the war lords of Germany and that, on that account his resignation was forced.

Other reports announce that the underlying cause for Count Czernin's action is his disinclination to continue as a part of the war machinery which is plunging his nation deeper and deeper into sorrow, misery and suffering.

The general impression among the people of the nations composing the alliance against Germany is that Count Czernin has been the decoy in much of Germany's insincere peace offensives. Certain it is that in ratifying the peace pact between Germany and her agents, the Bolsheviks, in Russia, his acts were not in accord with his previous declarations favoring peace without annexations.

Coming as it does, at the time the much advertised German offensive has failed in its objective, the world is inclined to withhold any opinion as to the resignation, until more of the underlying facts come to light by subsequent developments.

The German Navy

During the last few days rumors have been general throughout the world that Germany was preparing for a dash to the open sea with her navy.

Just how much of truth, if any, there is in these rumors it is difficult to determine. Reports of unusual activity about the German naval base, coaling the battleships and cruisers, taking on supplies and rounding up the men, seem to be based on some fact and that in connection with the marked falling off in submarine activity, seems to be responsible for the rumors of a preparation for a dash to the open sea.

While the odds are heavy against Germany in risking an encounter at sea with the allied fleets, yet her desperation may, though it seems unlikely, drive her to take that desperate chance.

Wanton in its butchery of men in the land fighting, so fearfully evident in the Picardy battles, the German general staff and the navy officials would not hesitate to take a longer chance at sea.

But Germany, already looking forward to the time which must come after the war—calculating cold bloodedly—might send thousands of human beings to death in France, but balk on the certain destruction of ships which might be used after the war in German commerce.

Poetry For Today

LITTLE FLAG ON OUR HOUSE
 The little flag on our house
 Is floating all the day
 Beside the great big Stars and Stripes;

You can almost hear it say
 To all the folks in our street,
 As the breezes make it dance:
 "Look up and see my one blue star—
 We've got a boy in France!"

The little flag on our house.
 It floats sometimes at night,
 And you can see it 'way up there
 When the street lamp shines just right.

And sometimes, 'long towards morning,
 When the cop comes by, perchance,
 It signals with its one blue star:
 "We've got a boy in France!"

The little flag on our house
 Will wave, and wave, and wave
 Until our boy comes home again,
 Or finds in France his grave.
 Nay—tho' its blue star turn to gold,
 Because of War's grim chance,
 It still shall wave to say: "Thank God!
 We've got a boy in France!"

ALLIED AIRMEN GET EIGHT HUN MACHINES

London, April 16.—Taking advantage of excellent weather conditions allied aviators made more than 350 expeditions over the enemy lines and engaged in 120 combats. Eight enemy planes were reported downed and 23 driven down within their own lines. Five hostile balloons were burned and five forced to descend after being riddled with bullets.

Nearly 100,000 pounds of projectiles were dropped on railway depots, tracks and cantonments back of the enemy lines. Many fires and explosions resulted.

NIGHT HIKING IS CALLED FOR

Chillicothe, O., April 16.—Draftees of the Eighty-third Division at Camp Sherman buckled down to intensive training that will lead them one step nearer Berlin. The schedule for the week, in addition to the regular routine training, calls for night marches in order to familiarize them with conditions that they are almost sure to meet with overseas.

The men will carry full packs, rifles, ammunition belts and equipment. Tonight members of the 165th brigade will take a hike and on the following nights other units will be called out. Next week the hikes will be lengthened to not less than seven and one-half miles.

In a report filed by the division reclamation officer at this camp, a total savings of $57,074.82 is shown. The reclamation department was opened Jan. 29, and is under the supervision of Lieutenant J. A. Rollman. The largest saving, according to the report was in the mending of shoes. A total of 8,255 pairs of shoes were repaired. The cost to the government of regulation shoes is $4.09, and they were mended at an average of 80 cents per pair, making a saving for this one item alone of $27,152.47. In addition to this the salvage department showed a saving of $14,378.50.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

The women of the Mothers' Circle worked like Trojans all day, Monday packing the dainty Layettes for Belgian Babies. The tables at the Red CrossWork Shop were piled high with the pretty little garments and many visitors were enthusiastic in praise of them.

It was a decided disappointment that a number of garments had not been turned in, delaying the final packing. However two large boxes are packed all ready to send and the packing will be finished as soon as these much wanted articles are turned in.

REQUEST GARMENTS RETURNS

The Mothers' Circle kindly requests the return of the diapers and other garments for the Belgian Babies immediately at the Red Cross work rooms or notify Mrs. Roy McClure and they will be called for.

AN APPRECIATED GIFT

The Mothers' Circle greatly appreciated a complete Layette sent in as a gift by a friend from Jeffersonville. It is exquisitely made, of beautiful material in pale blue and white and is the special admiration of all who have seen it.

RED CROSS AND HOME SERVICE

General Manager Gibson says that chapters must think first of Home Service. If the Red Cross policy is criticised, it will be especially harmful if it has to do with a neglect of our own neighbor, and such a criticism hurts all Red Cross Work.

Seattle has a fund of $50,000 for Home Service. See that your chapter understands and takes this work seriously. The French people in the villages and on the farms have kept the fighting men steadfast. They also say, "They shall not pass."

It is up to Home Service workers to wake up the "sleeping populace." We are in the greatest war in all history, and many do not know it. Helping a young wife of a soldier or old Mrs. Brown will help sustain morale.

Red Cross workers in the camps here and abroad say that men must hear from home frequently to sustain their fighting efficiency. The letters they receive should be cheerful, and not complaining. Home Service workers may write letters for many who are illiterate, and impress the value of writing upon the minds of many others.

This is only one of many services possible. The important thing to remember is that we must all get into the fight. Discontented families may mean a discontented soldier, and a discontented soldier may mean a discontented family.

K. P. R. C. AUCTION SALE

The splendid spirit of the Pythian Sisters and the Knights of Pythias in holding a second Red Cross Auction, Wednesday night at the K. P. hall appeals to the public. It is this spirit of unselfish service which is enabling the Red Cross to accomplish its tremendous activities.

So generous had been donors that there was twice the number of donations which could be disposed of in one evening, so the orders wisely held back many and much to desired articles to be sold at this second auction.

The collection is one which is made up of things which people really want and the Auction promises to be the liveliest place in the county on Wednesday night.

The women and men of these orders have worked hard to make the auction a success and through it turn over a large sum to the Red Cross. Every cent that is made goes into the Red Cross treasury as is always the rule with Red Cross benefits.

OBITUARY

Martha McAdam, wife of Morrow McAdam, was born and raised in Jefferson County, Ohio. She departed from this life, at her home in Good Hope, O., the 7th day of April, 1918, aged 78 years and 23 days. She united with the M. E. Church at Camp Grove, more than forty years ago, under the pastorate of Zachariah Whorton. After some years she transferred her membership to Oak Chapel on the West Holland Circuit where it remained until she came to Good Hope to spend the declining years of her life. At that time she brought her membership to the local M. E. Church where it remained in faithfulness unto the end. She always attended the services of the church until her advanced years and failing strength prevented her from doing so. She found consolation at home reading God's Holy Word and trusting in the Grace that is sufficient for all.

April 11th, 1864 she was united in marriage to Morrow McAdam. She was a kind and loving mother and her departure into the Vale of Shadows leaves many hearts filled with grief. She was the mother of eleven children—three having preceded with the husband and father to the Better World. Eight survive: Addie, of Good Hope, O. Albert of Mechanicsburg, O. Harry of Washington C. H., O. Alonzo, of New Holland, O. Effie Stookey, of Washington C. H., O. Blanche White, of Jamestown, O. Lizzie Roll, of Clarksburg, O. Mattie Minnick, of Good Hope, O.

Twenty-one grandchildren also mourn her loss—two younger ones being especially beloved by her—Opal Irene White and Loren Franklin Minnick.

"Farewell mother—but not forever—There will be a glorious dawn; We shall meet to part—no never—On that resurrection morn."

Thou thy mother's form lies sleeping In the cold and silent tomb; Thou shalt have a glorious waking When the Blessed Lord doth come."

Funeral services were held in the Good Hope, M. E. Church, on Wednesday, April 10th 2:30 p. m. Rev. Rose of Staunton officiating. The remains were laid to rest beside the husband in the Good Hope cemetery.

The acting pall-bearers were the grandson of the deceased—Ernest Roll, Elton Roll, Jesse McAdam, Paul Stookey, Estel Stookey, Dewey Stookey.

Members of the Ladies Aid Society were Honorary pall-bearers—Mrs. Dave Perry, Mrs. E. D. King, Mrs. Geo. King, Mrs. A. H. Taylor, Mrs. Dr. Stemler, Mrs. W. H. Miller.

CARD OF THANKS

The children desire to express in this manner their gratitude and deep appreciation to neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy: To the members of the Ladies' Aid Society, to the choir, and to those who contributed the beautiful floral offerings.

SPRING HORSE SALE OPENS WEDNESDAY AT SALES BARN

The Annual Spring Horse Sale at the Sales Barn will be held beginning tomorrow, Wednesday. While the number to be offered is not as large as previous sales the quality is better than usual.

Conditions that have militated against the sale are numerous and are in a way the result of war conditions. Only at a late date was it decided to hold a sale with the result that the time for advertising has been limited.

Railroad conditions are such that it is impossible to secure cars for shipment and most horses have come overland.

The sale includes among the number those horses of Grand Circuit quality and as there are a number of foreign buyers already here good prices are expected. Among this number are Theda Bara (3) 2:15 1/4 that has shown her ability to trot in 2:05 if not faster, among the pacers a sort of horse for which Fayette County has always been famous is Harry Hal 2:12 1/4; possibly the fastest horse that the Sabina neighborhood has every produced. The Raven 2:19 1/4 a mare from the same section is able to beat 2:10 very handily. Lady C 2:12 1/4; from Bainbridge that Oscar Vallery raced successfully last year is looking for a new home in first class society. Peggy Ormond a green mare from Circleville, O., is bred much like Judge Ormond 2:01 1/2 and is a high class mare.

There will also be sold at the beginning of the sale a number of horses from The Dayton Country Club. The little folks will not be forgotten, there being 10 ponies to sell. Good weather will bring a large number of visitors to the sale.

Prominent horsemen already here for the sale are: Walter Moore, Charleston, Ill., Gordon Stairr, Marion, O., Fred Tejen, Manager of the Dayton Country Club; Mr. Duffy of Cleveland Charles Swishelm, Thos. Bunton, Hiffshoro, Omar Van Kirk, Dayton, J. C. Murphy, Columbus, O., Col. John Pease, Vandalia "silver toned auctioneer." Joe Dearduff, Lebanon.

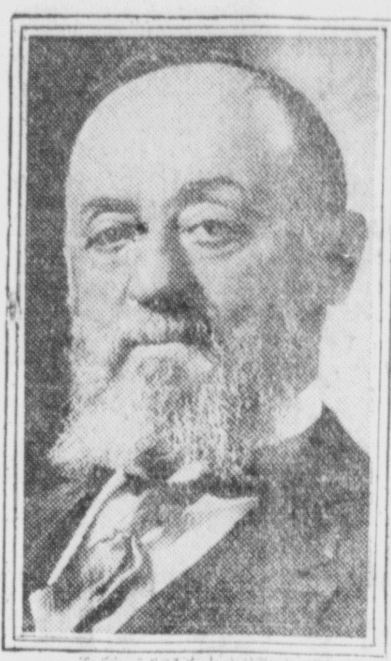

SORTING THE BOOKS FOR THE SOLDIERS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cleveland, O., April 16.—Carl P. Vitz, assistant librarian of the Cleveland Public Library is busy sorting out thousands of books offered by Clevelanders for American soldiers in camps. Hundreds of the books had to be discarded as unsuited for reading by Sammies.

"The Care of Babies" is a book of inestimable value — in its proper place," said Vitz, "but hardly desirable for use in our campaign for books for our troops." Other books discarded were on kitchen economy and poultry raising. One book bore the title "The Care of the Hair." Another book on auto repairs bore the date of 1904. Other contributions were German propaganda books, books on flower gardening and the hygiene of domestic pets. Mr. Vitz says scrap-books are needed for soldiers in hospitals.

MAY BE PRESIDENT JEWISH FEDERATION

NATHAN STRAUS.

Nathan Straus, of New York, was suggested as president of the Jewish Federation of America by Samuel Goldstein, present leader of the organization. Goldstein, speaker at the convention of the Federation of Rumanian Jews of America, held at New York, said: "I am willing to resign as president of the Federation if the president of the Jewish Union will resign. Then let there be a convention with a view to forming one great Jewish congress in this country with a man like Mr. Straus at its head."

VILLA STILL ACTIVE AND CONTINUALLY DISTURBS FEDERALS

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Juarez, Mexico, April 8.—Francisco Villa continues to play his fox-like tricks on the Mexican Federal troops as he did when he was "Pancho" Villa, the bandit, and rode the Sierra Madre mountains of western Chihuahua like a Mexican Robin Hood.

American mining men who had run the gauntlet of Villa's lines and reached the border here on a passenger train, the windows of which had been shot out by Villa's men, told the first connected story of Villa's operations around Canutillo, Durango, just over the Chihuahua state line, against the Federal column which pursued him from Jimenez with its 100 mounted daredevils.

After the fight at Laguna de Estacada, Chihuahua, Villa led his men southwest toward the Rio Colorado where he had hidden while General Pershing was pursuing him. There are bubbling hot springs on the Rio Colorado where Villa likes to bathe and soak the rheumatism and saddle soreness out of his limbs after a hard campaign. But, before he could enjoy his private baths in the Durango River, General Eduardo Hernandez and General Francisco Gonzales closed in on him with two cavalry columns.

Pretending to flee before these advancing columns, Villa and his men dashed through the little mountain town of Canutillo with the federal cavalrymen pursuing them a few hours later. Villa's little army disappeared over the ridge of a sandhill with the evening sun. The federals went into camp on a butte overlooking the town, intending to resume the pursuit at daybreak. It was a moonlight night and few sentries were posted, a custom not uncommon in Mexico.

Instead of continuing his flight Villa halted behind the first ridge, had all of his men leave their hats in a pile, wheeled his column and rode back toward Canutillo. Scouts reported the location of the federal camp, plainly visible in the moonlight. Whispered orders were given that no one but those wearing hats should be fired upon. The attack then began. With a war whoop which was as terrifying as the famous rebel yell, the Villa column swept down upon the camp, shooting from the saddle at every man who could be seen. In the confusion which followed the surprise night attack the federal soldiers killed many of their own men, mistaking them for Villa's men. After a sharp encounter Villa rode through Canutillo once more, leaving a small detachment there to hold the town against the federals.

There again he played one of his old tricks. He had these men hide in the adobe houses where they cut loop-holes facing the side from which the federal attack was expected. These Villa men also made all of the civilians crowd into these houses and give vivas for Villa to make the enemy believe the Villa force was many times larger than it really was. The small Villa band succeeded in holding off the federals until Villa could lead his main column in a circle and strike the federal column from the rear. Again the government troops were slaughtered, the mining men said, and many were made prisoners and later executed.

LONE STAR STATE TAKES LONG STRIDE FOR PROHIBITION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Austin, Texas, April 16.—Texas today took its first stride toward the prohibition column when Governor W. P. Hobby's Ten-mile Zone Bill, which banishes saloons within a radius of ten miles of every camp of military instruction in the state and which also applies to cities having ship building plants working on government contracts became a law. The act is effective for the duration of the war.

For the purpose of enacting this law, Governor Hobby called the Texas legislature into special session February 26 and a bill embodying provisions recommended by him and approved by Secretary Baker of the War Department, was enacted without delay.

The law effects practically every town in Texas having a population of 5,000 or more and it is estimated that upwards of 1,600 saloons have been put out of business.

The principal cities of the state that entered the "dry" column last midnight (referring to twelve o'clock midnight, April 14) are: Fort Worth, Galveston, San Antonio, Houston, El Paso, Wichita Falls, Beaumont, Orange.

These cities today not only are without saloons, but under provisions of the law, residents within the ten-mile zone are prohibited from importing liquor into their homes or places of business to any purpose except for sacramental, scientific, medical or mechanical purposes.

Attorney General B. F. Looney has construed the Zone Bill to apply to landing fields of aviators. If his contention is not overruled by the courts it is pointed out that saloons in at least a half dozen smaller towns must quit business.

When the statutory prohibition bill becomes a law, about June 27, all of Texas will be "dry" and both interstate and intra-state shipments of liquor will be prohibited.

MUST NOT USE RED CROSS NAME SAVE BY CONSENT

Attention of individuals and organizations, planning to hold auctions or entertainments of any kind or character, having as their purpose the raising of funds needed for war work in its various branches, is directed to the following specific announcement by Ex-President Wm. H. Taft, head of the Red Cross in America. There can be no mistaking the language. Ex-President Taft says:

Must permission to give an entertainment for the Red Cross be obtained from Headquarters, and if so, how far in advance must the request be made?

Permission must be obtained from the local chapter with which a branch or an auxiliary is affiliated. If there is no chapter then permission must be obtained from headquarters in Washington. Such permission, moreover, must be obtained before plans for the entertainment, including orders for printing, have been completed; otherwise waste of effort and of money would result if it chanced permission were not granted. All chapters of the Red Cross have been particularly cautioned against giving consent for local entertainments in the name of the Red Cross unless all the conditions conform to the organization's policy. Briefly, these conditions are:

First, That there be no division of profits with the promoter;
Second, That the management is under Red Cross control, and,
Third, That there is no use of the Red Cross emblem or name in advertising an entertainment unless the affair is actually under Red Cross direction and control.

From the foregoing statement it is perfectly clear that no entertainment of any kind is entitled to the benefits which advertised Red Cross affiliation insures, unless permission is first obtained from the local chapter or National chapter of the Red Cross and to obtain that certain specific requirements must be met.

It becomes important now to direct the attention of the public to this fact because there are, at the present time, a number of activities planned and some already under way which are not, strictly speaking, Red Cross affairs when the warning of Ex-President Taft is considered.

We have now a number of activities needing funds—namely among which is the war chest movement. It is not difficult to see, either, why the Red Cross has adopted the rules mentioned. Unless all the funds realized go to the Red Cross the public will fail to understand why the treasury of the local chapter is depleted when they had supposed large sums had found their way into the treasury, but as a matter of fact only a small

NEWS COMES HIGH OVER THE CABLES

Receiving news by cable from Europe is very expensive at the present time, and the cable tolls have cost the Associated Press as high as $4,000 in a single day, recently, while the average daily cost is said to be in excess of $2,000.

However, the Associated Press does not let expenses stand in the way of obtaining the news, and whenever the news warrants it, the tolls are heavy.

Every word of the news coming from Europe costs 25 cents in cable tolls.

portion of the funds were turned over to the Red Cross.

Nothing should be advertised as a Red Cross activity unless it is wholly and entirely Red Cross and after permission has been sought and obtained.

DEMAND FOR BONDS CONTINUES STEADY

The demand for the third Liberty Loan bonds continues steady, and they are selling at the rate of thousands of dollars worth daily.

Saturday witnessed a big increase in the sale of the bonds, and brought the total sales a step nearer the grand total.

It is expected that the loyal citizens of Fayette county will take the entire issue, and oversubscribe the same, without personal solicitation. Each person who can purchase a bond, either $50 or higher, must lose no time in doing so. Apply at any bank in Fayette county.

Only a comparatively short time remains in which the bonds must be taken, and those who cannot appear in person should either write their banker or call him by telephone without delay.

99 YEARS OLD TODAY IS NOW UNCONSCIOUS

Mr. Creamer has been unconscious for the past day or two and his death has been expected at any hour.

Mr. Creamer has been ill for several weeks, and his condition has been growing more serious daily.

Use of Potatoes to Save Wheat is demanded by the present situation, because greater quantities of wheat must be conserved, for the use of the American forces and the Allied armies in Europe, and also because an unusually large supply of potatoes remains in the hands of the growers. Great quantities of these will go to waste unless they are used even more freely and in a greater variety of ways than is customary in American families.

With the basic price of wheat fixed as at present, flour is 6 cents a pound. If, then, potatoes can be obtained at $1.35 a bushel, which is 2 1-4 cents a pound, it is an economy as well as a war service to use potatoes as a substitute for flour in bread making. Even at 3 cents a pound the potatoes cost no more than flour.

How to use potatoes in place of flour for various purposes, particularly in bread making, is shown below by carefully worked out recipes.

The potato has a place in our food list which no other vegetable occupies. It appears on the tables of countless families at least once a day and often at all three meals, and is so much a part of our daily food that we miss it almost as much as we would bread if we have to go without it. Its popularity is based on more than accident or custom. It is palatable and wholesome, supplies much food material, and has some special food qualities to its credit. Though we prepare it in almost endless ways as a vegetable served with meat and other food, we also use it for soups and salad making, sometimes for deserts, and with flour in baking. That we can use potato with flour is not surprising, for the food substance potato supplies most abundantly is starch, and it is largely because of the starch they contain that the world uses cereal grains as breadstuffs. It will very often be found, with a little experimenting, that one-third to one-half of the flour in some favorite recipe can be replaced with mashed potato.

POTATO BREAD.

1 cup mashed potato	2 to 4 tablespoons liquid yeast, or
1 teaspoon salt	1/2 cake dry yeast, or
2 1/2 cups flour (more if necessary)	1-6 to 1-2 cake compressed yeast.
4 tablespoons water

Short process: Mix the salt with the mashed potatoes, which are free from lumps and cooled until lukewarm. Add 1-6 to 1-2 cake compressed yeast softened in 4 tablespoons warm water, or 2 to 4 tablespoons liquid yeast, or 1-2 cake dry yeast. When liquid yeast is used no additional water must be added. Blend with this potato and yeast mixture 1 cup flour. Stir until smooth, cover, and set to rise. When this sponge is light and soft, knead in enough flour to make a rather stiff but elastic dough. Be sure that it is stiffer than ordinary dough. Cover and let rise again until very light. Knead down, mold, and place in lightly-greased pan. Let rise in pan until as high as ordinary white bread, then bake at least one hour in a moderately hot oven. Bake very thoroughly. This makes one loaf.

POTATO BISCUIT.

2 cups sifted flour	3 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon salt	1 cup mashed potato
3 teaspoons baking powder	Liquid sufficient to mix

Sift together twice the flour, salt and baking powder. Cut or rub into this the cold shortening. In the same way rub into this flour mixture the mashed potato. Finally, add just enough cold liquid to make the mass cling together. Do not knead. Place on flowered board, roll until 1-2 inch thick, and cut into rounds. Place these in lightly floured biscuit tins and bake 15 to 20 minutes in a moderately hot oven. Bake all potato breads slower than those made with flour alone.

BEEF PIE WITH POTATO CRUST

2 cups flour	1-3 cup milk
1-2 teaspoon salt	1-2 cup shortening
2 teaspoons baking powder	1 cup mashed potato

Barley Sponge Cake

Barley flour 1 1/3 cups; sugar 1 cup; eggs 4; lemon juice 1 tablespoon; salt 1/2 teaspoon.

Corn (Flour) Sponge Cake.

Corn flour 1 cup; sugar 1 cup; eggs 4; lemon 2 tablespoons; salt 1/2 teaspoon.

Oat Sponge cake

Oat flour 1/2 cup; corn flour 1/3 cup; eggs 4; lemon juice 1 tablespoon; salt 1/2 teaspoon.

Rice Sponge Cake

Rice flour 3/4 cup; sugar 1 cup; sugar 1 cup; eggs 4; lemon juice 2 tablespoons; salt 1/2 teaspoon.

Methods of Mixing Sponge Cakes
1. Separate whites and yolks. Beat the yolks until thick and light lemon color. Beat sugar into the stiffened yolks, and add the lemon juice. Fold in alternately the stiffly beaten whites and flour. Bake in an ungreased pan for 35 to 40 minutes.

Results of Sponge Cakes

1. These cakes are all very nice and light, texture and color good—Barley has characteristic flavor—Corn cakes is especially tender and all are good textured. The extra lemon juice in rice and corn is to cover up the tendency toward a starchy taste.

Note:—The larger amount of lemon juice seems necessary with corn and rice flours to improve the flavor.

FREIGHT BUSINESS IS GREATEST EVER

The freight traffic passing through this city at the present time is said to be by far the heaviest in the history of the roads, and there is hardly a minute of the day or night but what at least one train is passing through the city on one of the roads.

One operator at the Union station during an eight hour period (mostly at night) had four passenger trains and 22 freight trains on both branches of the B. & O. and the D. T. & I. railroad, and it is hinted that this traffic will further increase by some 400 cars daily from other roads which will pass over the Wellston branch of the B. & O. and a large number which will be turned over to the D. T. & I. for hauling northward.

The increased freight business has made the need of greater yardage at this point very pressing, and before the summer is gone there will probably be some extensive additions to the yardage here.

FOR LUMBAGO

Try Musterole. See How Quickly It Relieves
You just rub Musterole in briskly, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use it instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister. Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Always dependable. 30 and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

If your hens fail to hatch all the chickens they can take care of, send Brownell $1.50 per dozen and your mail man will deliver what baby chickens you want at your door. $5 126
